

INDEX.

- Acting, craze for in pre-Revolutionary France, transferred to England, 1.
- Actors, numerous companies of (1536-38), 302; see also Children. Alsace-Lorraine, recent French books on, 271 sqqq.
- Austen, Jane, importance of the play in Mansfield Park, 1-23.
- Austin, Roland, suggestions for arranging the printed catalogue of a local collection of books, 315-38.
- Baldwin, William, his 'Beware the Cat,' 306 sq.; his printer's device, 307 n.
- Bartlett, Henrietta C., her Catalogue of Shakespeare Exhibition at New York Public Library, reviewed, 183-6.
- Baskerville, John, his influence on later printers, 15, 47.
- Berthelet, Thomas, J. Gropall's legacy to, 129, 131 sq.
- Billings, J. S., memoir of, by F. H. Garrison, reviewed, 101-4.
- Blagrave, William, Deputy to the Master of the Revels, his license endorsed on manuscript of a play, 228.
- Boas, F. S., on a Seventeenth Century Theatrical Repertoire, 225-39.
- Bodleian Library, originally held the position of a National Library, 184; Shakespeare signature in its copy of an Aldine Ovid (1502) spurious, 208.
- Bodoni, Giambattista, T. M. Cleland's monograph on noticed,, 376 sqqq.
- Bold, Henry, his borrowing from Herrick, 110.
- Bonny, Wm., 'Ars Nova Natandi' (1698) printed by, at Bristol, 163.
- Brew, Anthony, actor, his name in manuscript of 'The Two Noble Ladies,' 232.
- Bristol and Norwich, their rival claims to possession of earliest municipal library, 180 sq.
- British Museum Library, proportion of incunabula in, 177 sq.; account of the library, noticed, 179 sq.; never claims the title 'National Library,' 184; Index to its Catalogue of Incunabula printed at Rome noticed, 187 sq.
- Bruno 'super Psalterium' printed by G. Reyser at Würzburg rather than M. Reyser at Eichstätt, 178.
- Bullen, A. H., his 'Collection of Old English Plays,' 225 sqqq.
- Burleigh, Lord, J. Heywood's letter to, 247 sqqq.
- Candy, H. C. H., on an inserted title-page in the 1670 edition of Crashaw's Poem, 77 sq.
- Capell, Edmund, his dealing with textual difficulties in 'Love's Labour's Lost,' 355 sq.
- Carnegie Libraries in Ireland, 121 sqqq.
- Cartwright, William, senior, his career as an actor, 236.
- Cartwright, William, junior, bequest of manuscript plays to Dulwich College, 226; his career as actor and bookseller, 237 sqqq.

INDEX.

- Castro, J. Paul de, on Fielding's
Last Voyage, 145-59.
Chapel Royal, J. Heywood's reputed connection with, 250 sqq. ;
plays performed by the children
of, 298.
Charlton, H. B., textual note on
'Love's Labour's Lost' by, 355-70.
Children players, 297 sqq.
Chronology of 'Tom Jones,' F. S.
Dickson on the, 218-24.
Clarke, Archibald, on F. H. Garrison's memoir of J. S. Billings, 101-4.
Cleland, T. M., monograph on Bodoni noticed, 376 sqq.
Clement, John, son-in-law of Sir
T. More, his career, 264 sq., 309.
Coffin, Martin, Exeter bookseller, books printed for, 128.
Collectivism, 346.
Collier, Peggy, letter as to Field-ing's behaviour at Ryde attributed to, 157 sqq.
Comte, Auguste, his relations with Clotilde de Vaux, 339-42.
Copyright in Lodge's 'Josephus' pleaded as a bar to publication of L'Estrange's new translation, 173-6.
Cornell University, Catalogue of the Fiske Petrarch Collection at, noticed, 374 sqq.
Cox, E. M., on the Ballads of François Villon, 53-74 ; on the Bibliography of Herrick, 105.
Cranmer, Archbishop, intrigue against, 303.
Crashaw, Richard, note by H. C. H.
Candy on an inserted title-page in the Poems of 1670, 77 sq.
Cruys, Francis, his 'Ars Nova Natandi' (1698) printed at Bristol, 163.
Cummins, D. G., on the evolution of the rural library in Ireland, 120-7.
Day, John, his coat-of-arms used by John Windet as a mark, 373.
Dennestone, Walter, latinizes (1691) Herrick's Poem on the Fairies, 106.
Dickson, F. S., on 'The Early Editions of Fielding's Voyage to Lisbon,' 24-35 ; comments by A. W. Pollard, 75-7 (mistaken), 160 sqq. , by J. P. de Castro, 145-55 ; on the Chronology of 'Tom Jones,' 218-24.
Dobson, Austin, his views on the 1755 editions of Fielding's
'Voyage to Lisbon' quoted, 149 sqq. ; note on the authorship of 'Millennium Hall,' 283-7.
Dodds, M. H., on the play 'Lovers'
Vows' in 'Mansfield Park,' 1-23.
Du Vair, G., his 'Traité de la
Constance,' 40 sqq.
Edward VI, efforts to amuse him, 306.
Egerton MS. 1994, examination of the plays contained in, 225-36 ; its provenance, 226, 238.
Essex, theatrical activity in, temp.
Henry VIII, 295 and note.
Exeter booksellers, see Coffin (M.),
Gropall (J.), Hunt (J.).
Farrère, Claude, his 'Quatorze histoires de soldats' noticed, 137 sq.
Fielding, Henry, article on 'The Early Editions of his Journal of a Voyage to Lisbon,' by F. S.
Dickson, 24-35 ; comments (mistaken) by A. W. Pollard, 75-77 ;
by J. P. de Castro, 145-159 ;
by A. W. Pollard, 160 sqq. ; extract as to from printer's ledger, 154 ; letter on his behaviour at

- Ryde, 157-9; F. S. Dickson on the Chronology of 'Tom Jones,' 218-24.
- Fielding, John, drastic changes in text of his brother's Voyage to Lisbon attributed to, 30 sqq.
- Fiske, Willard, Catalogue of the Fiske Petrarch Collection at Cornell University noticed, 374 sqq.
- Florio's Montaigne, Shakespeare signature in the British Museum copy not genuine, 193-207.
- Forrest, William, musician, friend of J. Heywood, his career, 267.
- Fowler, Mary, her Catalogue of the Fiske Petrarch Collection at Cornell University noticed, 374 sqq.
- French Literature during the War, by Elizabeth Lee, 36-52; Recent French Books, 136-44, 271-82, 339-54.
- French Men of Letters 'morts pour la patrie,' 50 sq.
- Garnett, Richard, his share in 'Letters about Shelley,' 288.
- Garrison, F. H., his memoir of J. S. Billings reviewed, 101-4.
- Gibson, H., actor, his name in manuscript of 'The Captives,' 231 sqq.
- Goldsmith, Oliver, 'Millenium Hall' wrongly attributed to, 285 sq.
- Gradwell, Henry, plays in which he acted, 233, 235.
- Grolier Club, Catalogue of its Exhibition of English Prose Fiction noticed, 189-92.
- Gropard, John, alias Lumbard, Exeter Bookseller, article by H. R. Plomer on, 128-35; his will, 129 sq.
- Guillot, Denis, his novel 'Superkultur' noticed, 280 sqq.
- Hall, M., spurious note in the Bodleian Library referring to, 213.
- Hardy, Thomas, A. P. Webb's Bibliography of his Works noticed, 186 sq.
- Harris, Thomas, stationer, apprentice to J. Gropall, 129, 131.
- Hart, H. C., his denial that Folio text of 'Love's Labour's Lost' was printed from the Quarto refuted, 366 sq.
- Herbert, Sir Henry, his license for acting endorsed on manuscript of a play, 228.
- Herrick, Robert, notes on the bibliography of, by E. M. Cox, 105-119.
- Heywood, Ellis, son of John Heywood, 306, 310 sqq., 312 sq.
- Heywood, Jasper, translator of 'Seneca,' 306 sqq.
- Heywood, John, the playwright, and his friends, articles by A. W. Reed, 240-70, 289-314.
- Heywood, John, Yeoman of the Guard, 250 sqq.
- Heywood, Richard, Prothonotary of the King's Bench, 243 sq.
- Heywood, Thomas, Austin Canon, 245 sq.
- Heywood, Thomas, plays by, in Egerton manuscript 1994, 'The Captives,' 227, 229, 231, 234.
- Heywood, William, farmer, 240 sq.
- Hunt, Thomas, Exeter bookseller, his share in publishing Herrick's poems, 108 sqq.
- Inchbald, Mrs., her 'Lovers' Vows' adapted from Kotzebue, 2, 18, 21.
- Ing, Gingiang Jayberd, Parish of Butsbery, in J. Heywood's 'Weather,' describes the Manor of Blunts, 242.
- Ireland, the evolution of its rural libraries, 120-7.

INDEX.

- Josephus, copyright claimed over any English versions of, 173 sq.
- Kotzebue, Aug., Mrs. Inchbald's 'Lovers' Vows' adapted from his 'The Love Child,' 2; Kotzebue a forerunner of Ibsen, 21.
- Kruitwagen, Father, his Index to British Museum Catalogue of Incunabula printed at Rome noticed, 187 sqq.
- Lady Mother, a play ascribed to Glapthorne, 227; license endorsed on manuscript, 228.
- Larcher, Gl., stationer, apprentice to J. Gropall, 129, 131.
- Lee, Elizabeth, on French Literature during the War, 36-52; on some recent French Books, 136-44, 271-2, 339-54.
- L'Estrange, Sir Roger, copyright difficulties in printing his version of Josephus, 173-6.
- Libraries, rural, in Ireland, article on, by G. D. Cummins, 120-7.
- Licenses for acting endorsed on manuscripts of plays, 228 sq.
- Lichtenberger, A., his 'Juste Lobel, alsacien,' noticed, 274 sqq.
- Local Collection, suggestions for arranging a printed catalogue of, 315-38.
- Lodge, Thomas, copyright in his translation of Josephus pleaded as a bar to publication of L'Estrange's, 172-6.
- 'Lovers' Vows,' importance of the play in 'Mansfield Park,' 1-23.
- 'Love's Labour's Lost,' a textual note on, 355-70.
- Lumbard, John, alias Gropall, see Gropall.
- Mac Orlan, Pierre, 'Les Poissons morts,' noticed, 349.
- Madden, Sir Frederic, his belief in genuineness of Shakespeare's signature in Florio's Montaigne, 199.
- Malby, Sir Thomas, works on horses by and attributed to, 164-72; dedication by, 170 sq.
- Mâle, Edouard, his comparison between French and German gothic architecture, 347 sq.
- Mary, Queen, John Heywood's verses to, 292; his 'children' perform before her, 297; his oration to, 299.
- Masson, P., his 'La Religion de J. J. Rousseau,' noticed, 37-40.
- McClean, Frank, Catalogue of Early Printed Books bequeathed by to Fitzwilliam Museum reviewed, 177 sqq.
- Merton, Wilfred, on a new Bristol pamphlet, 162 sqq.; on Windet's 1594 ed. of 'The Whole Booke of Psalmes' and the device used in it, 371 sqq.
- Mille, Pierre, his 'Sous leur dictée' noticed, 138 sq.
- 'Millennium Hall,' note by Austin Dobson on its authorship, 283.
- Montaigne's Essays, Shakespeare signature in British Museum copy of Florio's translation not genuine, 193-207.
- More, Sir Thomas, J. Heywood's connections with, 263 sqq., 291.
- More, Sir Thomas, Shakespeare's hand in Ant. Munday's play on, suggestions on, by P. Simpson, 79-96; by J. A. Herbert, 97-100.
- Mulliner, Thomas, his music book, 273 sq., 297.
- Munday, Anthony, his share in play of 'Sir Thomas More,' 79 sqq.
- N., T., spurious note in Bodleian Ovid signed, 213.

- Neveux, Pol, his novel 'La douce enfance de Thierry Seneuse,' noticed, 278 sqq.
- New York Public Library, Exhibition of Shakespeariana at, 183-6; statistics of its issues of famous novels, 191.
- Norwich, account of its City Library noticed, 180-3.
- Notes on Old Books, 75-8, 160-72, 283-7, 371-4.
- Nott, John, his selections from Herrick, 112.
- Novels and romances, Catalogue of Grolier Club Exhibition of English Prose Fiction noticed, 189-92; statistics of issues of famous novels at New York Public Library quoted, 191.
- Ovid, Ven., Metamorphoses, Aldus (1502), Shakespeare signature in Bodleian copy spurious, 208 sqq.
- Patteson, Rev. Edmund, owner of copy of Florio's Montaigne with spurious Shakespeare signature, 198.
- Petrarca, Francesca, Miss Mary Fowler's Catalogue of the Fiske Petrarch Collection at Cornell University noticed, 374 sqq.
- Phinn, Rev. C. P., his notes on Herrick, 117.
- Pollard, A. W., comments (mistaken) on order of early editions of Fielding's Journal, 75-7; answered by J. P. de Castro, 151 sqq., explained, 160 sqq.; references to his paper on cancels in Herrick's Hesperides, 107 sq.; on authorship of 'Remedies for dyseases in Horses, 164-72; on copyright in Josephus, 173-6; reviews by, 177-92, 288, 375-80.
- Prompter's notes on manuscripts of plays, 229.
- Purfoot, T., printer of the 'Remedies for dyseases in Horses,' its authorship wrongly attributed to him, 167-71; his dedicatory verses quoted, 168 sq.
- Rastell, Joan, married to John Heywood, 262.
- Rastell, John, his employments, 262, 265, 289 sqq.
- Rawlings, Gertrude, her account of the British Museum Library, noticed, 179 sq.
- Redford, John, musician, J. Heywood's connections with, 293 sq., 296.
- Reed, Arthur W., on John Heywood and his friends, 240-70, 289-314.
- Reims, novel by Pol Neveux on, 278 sqq.; Ed. Mâle on Reims Cathedral and the Divina Commedia, 348.
- 'Remedies for the dyseases in Horses,' wrongly attributed to Sir T. Malby and T. Purfoot, 164-72.
- Richardson, Samuel, letter as to Fielding's behaviour at Ryde probably addressed to, 159.
- Robinson, Sarah, the author of 'Millenium Hall,' 286.
- Romains, Jules, his 'La vie unanime' noticed, 343 sqq.
- Rouvre, Charles de, his 'L'amour-euse histoire d'Auguste Comte et de Clotilde de Vaux' noticed, 339-42.
- Sare, Richard, copyright difficulties in issuing L'Estrange's version of Josephus, 173-6.
- Sayle, Charles, his Catalogue of Early Printed Books bequeathed to Fitzwilliam Museum by F. McClean, reviewed, 177 sqq.
- Scott, George Lewis, husband of Sarah Robinson, 286.

INDEX.

- Sea, Fielding's pictures of, 145 sqq.
 Shakespeare, William, Sir E. M.
 Thompson's book on his Handwriting and probable authorship of episode in play of Sir Thomas More, reviewed, by P. Simpson, 79-96; by J. A. Herbert, 101-4; article by Sir E. M. Thompson on Two Pretended Autographs of, 193-217; H. B. Charlton's textual note on 'Love's Labour's Lost,' 355-70; errors due to his own hasty corrections, 363.
 Shakespearean, mistaken form for Shakespearian, 186.
 Shakespeariana, Catalogue of Exhibition of at New York Public Library reviewed, 183-6.
 Shelley, P. B., 'Letters about Shelley' noticed, 288.
 Simpson, Percy, paper on the play of 'Sir Thomas More' and Shakespeare's hand in it, 79-96.
 Smoking, permitted in early Norwich library, 182.
 Stage directions written on manuscripts of plays, 229 sqqq.
 Stagekeeper, directions in manuscript of 'The Captives' for his taking a part, 232.
 Stephen, G. A., his 'Three Centuries of a City Library' noticed, 180-3.
 St. Paul's School, part played by in Queen Mary's pageant, 299 sqqq.; J. Heywood's connection with, ibid.
 Stutfield, George, actor, named in manuscript of plays, 232 sqqq.
 Strahan, Wm., printer, extract from his ledger as to Fielding's Journal of a Voyage to Lisbon, 154.
 Surrey, Earl of, J. Heywood's supposed borrowing from, 293.
 Thompson, Sir E. Maunde, on Two Pretended Autographs of Shakespeare, 193-217; his book on 'Shakespeare's Handwriting' and Shakespeare's authorship of 3 pages of 'Sir T. More,' reviewed, by P. Simpson, 79-96; by J. A. Herbert, 97-101.
 Tusser, Thomas, relations with J. Redford, 294.
 Typographical Errors, excessive reliance on as a source of corruption in Shakespeare's text, 357 sqqq., 365 sqq.
 Udall, Nicholas, attribution of a play to, 295 n.
 Valloton, Benjamin, his 'Ce qu'en pense Potterat' noticed, 141 sqqq.; his novel on Alsace, 273 sqq.
 Vaux, Clotilde de, her relations with Comte, 339-42.
 Villon, François, article by E. M. Cox on his Ballads, 53-74.
 Waley, John, stationer, executor to J. Gropall, 130-2 sqqq.
 Wallace, C. W., his statements as to John Heywood corrected, 250 sqqq., 301.
 Weather, explanation of a line in J. Heywood's play of, 242.
 Webb, A. P., his Bibliography of the Works of Thomas Hardy noticed, 186.
 Windet, John, his 1594 edition of 'The Whole Booke of Psalms' and the device in it, 371 sqqq.
 Yvet, Colette, stories by noticed, 351.

i
-
i f
;
l. e t, a n
;
as I.
co
as d, in
of ly of s' d,